Child Protection Policy

Soul Survivor recognises the unique status of children/young people, and seeks to ensure that they are respectfully treated as individuals. All workers, paid and voluntary, may be in contact with children/young people and consequently must accept that their welfare is paramount. As a team member in cases of abuse you must follow the procedure set out by Soul Survivor at the beginning of the event. Our full child protection policy is available to download from the Soul Survivor website. Although your team leaders will go through it at your chosen event please make sure you are familiar with these guidelines before coming to site. Copies are available by email on request.

I agree to abide by the child protection procedures and guidelines laid down by Soul Survivor before and during the event. I certify the information I have provided is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
