AIMS: The Soul Survivor experience for 10-11s runs during main meetings (11am – 1pm & 7pm – 9pm) Boulder Gang has its own mix of worship, teaching and ministry. There is a tonne of space to discover more about Jesus, learning about praying for others and making new friends. Your role on team is to befriend, teach and encourage the young people attending Boulder Gang, especially those in your small group, for whom you are responsible. Approx 8hrs per day.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To attend morning and evening sessions that Boulder Gang run, including the Kids Team Welcome and Training from 12-1pm (Day 1) Kids Individual Team Meetings and registration set up from 2pm (Day 1) All kids teams to have tea together from 4.30-5pm (Day 1) Registration is 6.30-7pm at the Boulder Gang venue, with the session finishing at 8pm (Day 1)
- Set aside free time for preparation for sessions.
- To assist with the set up of the venue at the beginning of the week, before each session and to help pack down at the end.
- Help with craft, games and small group preparation time.
- To action the Boulder Gang programme as laid out by the Boulder Gang Leader.
- Lead your allocated small group in small group times and have the work ready and prepared daily.
- Be prepared to be involved in activities outside of the Boulder Gang programme (video screening, water fights, sports activities etc.)
- To spend time with Boulder Gang delegates, encourage and pray for them. Any serious problems that surface should be referred to the Boulder Gang Leader at once.
- Report all disclosures of past and present abuse of any nature to your Team Leader. Do not promise confidentiality.
- Minister to the delegates, lead under the direction of the Boulder Gang Leader.

CONCESSIONS:

Team members receive a free pass, and 3 meals a day. Your first meal will be an evening meal on the first day of the event (Day 1) and your last meal will be on the evening of the final day of the event (Day 5). You are responsible for providing your own accommodation.

CONDITIONS

- Soul Survivor has outlined certain Values & Principles for ministry, which should be read and understood. Whilst on a team at Soul Survivor, you are expected to accept and work out of these values at all times.
- You should attend all appropriate team meetings during the event.
- You must be 18 years or over.

Team Training

There will be a Team meeting on your day of arrival, which you MUST attend. Successful applicants will be sent details of where and when this Team meeting will take place at a later date.

There will also be a Holy Spirit and His Gifts training day at Soul Survivor Watford Church on Saturday 8th May. Further details can be found on our website.

Please turn over for important application notes

Application Notes

Booking in to the event

The application form is also your booking form, and therefore there is no need to send in a separate booking form. Please note that in filling in this application form the Soul Survivor Booking terms and conditions apply. We ask that you do not send in any booking fees with this application, as this team receives a free place to the event. If, however you are unsuccessful in your application, then we will require that you either cancel your booking in writing, or send full booking fees to gain a pass to the event.

Please let us know if you're coming with friends or would like to be camped with others on your team.

Reference

The referee you nominate on your application must not be related to you in any way. If the minister of your church is a relation, please use another leader from your church and specify their job role.

Application procedure

Once we have received your application we will be contacting your Minister or Church leader for a reference. We will also be police-checking all applications. As you can appreciate, these procedures take time, but we will endeavour to keep you posted regarding the status of your application. Should you have any questions or queries about your application at any stage, please feel free to contact us at the Soul Survivor Offices. Once you have been accepted onto the team we will send you a letter confirming this and detailing other important information.

We look forward to receiving your application soon!
